PRESENTS

Historian and Civil Rights Activist

DR. MARY FRANCES BERRY

at our
28th NATIONAL SPEAKER FORUM
AND FUNDRAISER

“RACE, PROTEST & POLITICS: WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?”

Wednesday, April 6, 7:30 pm
Memorial Hall ~ 1225 Elm Street ~ Over-the-Rhine

DR. MARY FRANCES BERRY is a distinguished historian and one of the most respected activists in the cause of civil rights, gender equality, and social justice over the past four decades. She was the longtime chair of the U.S. Civil Rights Commission.

A moving speaker who makes history come alive, Dr. Berry believes that each generation has the responsibility to make a dent in the wall of injustice.
